Established in 2008, Cheddar Painting Holidays has since expanded its reach across the UK, Spain and Portugal. As a commitment to the standards of holiday and tuition, the company is now known as Alpha Painting Holidays – guaranteeing guests “A Lovely Painting Holiday Adventure”.

One lucky entrant drawn at random will win a four-day painting holiday with Alpha at the Bells Hotel in the Wye Valley, worth £595. A choice of dates in 2014 includes holidays hosted by Artists & Illustrators contributors Joe Francis Dowden and Rob Dudley. The prize includes all food and drink (excluding alcohol), accommodation, day trips and tuition.

Holiday Competition - with the SAA's Paint Magazine 2013

COMPETITION

If Judith's experiences sound tempting, why don't you enter our competition to win a painting holiday? Like her you could find yourself not only enjoying some time away and meeting new friends, but also boosting your confidence, learning new techniques and producing paintings you can be proud of.

We are offering one lucky reader the chance to win a holiday in the stunning Wye Valley

a painting holiday worth £595 in the stunning Wye Valley in Gloucestershire. The winner can choose any three or four-day holiday at the Bells Hotel, worth up to £595 (subject to availability).

This painting holiday is organised by Alpha Painting Holidays, formerly called Cheddar Painting Holidays. When you go on an Alpha Painting Holiday you can be sure you'll stay in good quality accommodation with some of Britain's top art tutors. The company was formed in 2008 and grew from an art Gallery in Cheddar Gorge. At first the company offered painting holidays in Cheddar and the surrounding area, but over the years its business has expanded to such an extent that tutors now take keen artists as far afield as Spain and Portugal, as well as on location throughout the UK. To reflect the new wealth of holidays on offer the company has a new name, Alpha Painting Holidays, and a new motto 'A Lovely Painting Holiday Adventure'!
